THE
Last Will and Testament

O F

JOHN PARTRIDGE, Gent.

E Registro Curiae Prerogativæ
Cant. Extract.

In the Name of GOD,
Amen. This Third Day of December, in the first Year of the Reign of His Majesty King GEORGE, over Great Bri-
B tain,

tain, &c. Anno. Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fourteen. I John Partridge, of the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, in the County of Middle- sex, Gentleman, being in great Pain and Sicknes of Body, but of sound perfect and disposing Mind and Memory, (praised be God for the same) Do make and ordain this my Last Will and Testament, consisting of Two Parts, each of the same Tenour; and do hereby give and dispose of my Temporal Estate as followeth, (to wit)

I give unto my Kinswoman Ann Gale of Bedford, the Sum of Four Hundred Pounds when she shall attain the Age of One and Twenty Years, or be Married,

ryed, which shall first and next happen.

I give unto John Grimes, Silver-Smith, the Sum of Two Hundred Pounds.

I give unto the Reverend Mr. Chandler, of Bath, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds.

I give unto Doctor William Tindall the like Sum of One Hundred Pounds.

I give unto John Rawlins, a Cooper, and Son of William Rawlins, late of White-Chapel, Cordwainer, deceased, the Sum of Two Hundred Pounds.

I give unto Edward Andrews, of Wandsworth in Surrey, Cord-wainer, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds.

I give unto my Cozen Rachael Myrason, Wife of David My- rason, of Duke's Court, in St.
Martin's-Lane, Twenty Pounds,

I give unto my Cozen Esther Fanjoy, Wife of Fanjoy, the Sum of Twenty Pounds for her own separate Use, and to be at her' absolute Disposol.

I give unto Mrs. Rosamond Kenton, Widow, the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and such one of my Clocks as my Wife shall think fit.

I also give unto the said Rosamond Kenton the farther Sum of Fifty Pounds, in Trust, and to the Intent and Purpose that she, and her Executors, or Administrators shall, and may pay, and apply the same, and the Interest Profits and Produce thereof unto, and for the sole and separate Use and Maintainance of her Daughter Rosamond King, at such Times, and in such Manner as she or they shall think fit : And to the end the same may not be subject, or liable to the Controul, Acts or Debts of her Husband.

I give unto Mary Kenton, Spinster, another Daughter of the said Rosamond Kenton, the like Sum of Fifty Pounds.

I give unto Elizabeth Taylor, of the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, and Robert Taylor her Son, the Sum of Fifty Pounds together, and in the whole.

Item, I give unto Mr. Joseph
Dighton, of Mile-End, Chymist, Five Pounds.

I give unto my good Friend
Mr. Thomas Dance, the Sum of Ten Pounds.

I give unto my Maid Servant
Elizabeth Glanvill, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds.

I give unto Jane Grimes and Elizabeth Grimes Five Pounds
a piece.

I give unto Matthew Loft, of Christ Church Parish in Surrey, if he shall be living at the time of my Decease, Ten Pounds, to buy him a Boat withal. And in case he shall be then dead, I give the said Ten Pounds unto his Son William Loft.

I give unto Mr. Francis Bennett, of Merefeild-House, in the Parish of Catstock in Dorsetshire, all my Books, Papers and Manuscripts, and also my Two Guns.

Item, I give unto my Loving Wife Jane Partridge the Sum of Seven Hundred Pounds Sterling; and also all my Plate and Household Goods, and all my Medicines, with the Materials, Utensils filis and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, together with all my wearing Apparell and Linnen; and Ten Pounds more to be by her disposed of amongst such Poor as she shall think fit.

I give unto my Executors herein after named, Ten Pounds a piece for Mourning, in case they shall wear the same, but not otherwise. And also each a Broad-piece of Old Gold to buy them Rings, to wear in Remembrance of me. And my Will is, and I do hereby desire, and direct my Executors, to cause my Body to be interred at Mortlake, in the County of Surrey, in a Grave built up with Brick, to be then after covered with a Tomb-Stone, in case the Church-Wardens and Inha-

Inhabitants there shall permit them so to do, the Management whereof, as well as all other Matters relating to my Interment, I leave to their Discretion, so they lay out therein a Sum not exceeding One Hundred Pounds. And in Case such Grave as aforesaid be admitted of, and made at Mortlake aforesaid, Then, and in such Case, and not otherwise, I do hereby direct my Executors to give, and distribute at their Discretion, Twenty Pounds unto, and amongst the poor of the same Parish. But in Case my said Request be not complied withal, then I leave it entirely to my Executors otherwise to Bury me in some other dry Church-Yard, in some other of the Neighbouring Parishes, by the River of Thames, in the Manner aforefaid ; and at their Discretion to distribute the like Sum amongst the Poor thereof, as they fhall think fit. And all the reft, and refidue of all my my Monies, Securities for Monies, Goods, Chattels, and Personal Eftate, that fhall be, and remain after my Debts, Legacies, and Funeral Charges fhall be paid and difcharged. I give and bequeath unto the faid Mr. Francis Bennet, and unto Mr. Philip Boucher of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Diftiller, in Truft, and to the Intent that they, and the Survivor of them, and the Executors and Adminiftrators of fuch Survivor, fhall, and do give, pay, apply, difpofe of, and diftribute the fame, and every Part thereof, unto

to such Person, and Persons; and to, and for, and upon such Trusts, Uses, Intents, and Purposes, as I have, or shall direct them. And I do name, ordain, and appoint the said Mr. Francis Bennet, and Mr. Philip Boucher, Executors of this my last Will and Testament. And lastly, I do hereby revoke, and make void and null all former and other Wills by me made, and do publish and declare this present Writing contain'd in One Skin, or Piece of Parchment, written on one Side only, to be and stand as and for my only last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof, I the said John Partridge the Testator, have hereunto set my Hand and Seal, the Day and Year first above Written.
